

Elizabeth Vosburgh – A Short Biography

Elizabeth Vosburgh comes to St. Peters as parishioner for 35-plus years. She is a Registered Nurse with a Business Degree along with multiple certifications in both Health Care and Human Resources. Her last position was Senior Vice President at Northumberland Hills Hospital, where she retired in 2022. Not being one for sitting still for long, Elizabeth accepted a six-month interim position in January 2023 as the CEO for Canadian Mental Health Association in the Quinte area.

Elizabeth continues to work as a coach/facilitator for Queen's University in the Industrial Relations Program on a part time basis and also helps support organizations with either Health Care or Human Resources/Management needs.

Elizabeth has two grown children, Michael, who is actively involved in the family business, Vosburgh Home Decor, and Sarah, who is a local Naturopathic Doctor and married to Ryan Cichowski. She has two grandchildren, Quorra (12) and Peyton (16 months).

Elizabeth, along with her husband Brian, and dog Millie, resides in Cobourg.
